Make a racket

The BNP Paribas WTA Finals Singapore presented by SC Global - and its bevy of women's tennis stars - are coming to town this month. But there's more to the tournament than just the exciting courtside action.

TENNIS SWINGS

Until Nov 1

While you're at the Singapore Sports Hub, why not get closer to the action at the conveniently located Kallang Wave Mall and have a go on the Tennis Swings! Co-commissioned by the Singapore Tourism Board and the National Heritage Board, the 6 crowd-pleasing Tennis Swings reinterprets the high impact sport of tennis through an artistic lens - you'll hear the 'pock' of the ball being hit by a racket while you swing. While there, you can also enjoy attractive shopping deals offered by the mall. Check the mall's website for details.

Kallang Wave Mall

SINGAPORE WINE FIESTA 2015

Oct 22-25

The eighth edition of the festival features 350 wine labels and gives guests the chance to meet 70 winemakers from all around the world. Munch on delightful grub served up by local chefs such as Malcom Lee (Candlenut), Matthew Mok (The Rabbit Stash) and Cheryl Koh (Tarte by Cheryl Koh), and groove to tunes to musicians such as soul siren Vandetta.

Clifford Square

MALLS BROUGHT TO LIFE

Until Nov 1

The floors of Marina Square and Bugis+ are getting a makeover as locally based artist Ben Qwek creates a series of interactive tennis-related 3D artworks this month. Take creative photos of yourself with them and stand a chance to win tickets to the WTA Finals or mall vouchers. More than that, a number of retailers at Marina Square are also offering exclusive discounts to WTA Finals ticket holders! Check the malls' websites for details.

Marina Square and Bugis+

ORCHARD ROAD ACTIVATION

Until Nov 1

Take photos with supersized tennis props along Orchard Road, and while you're at it, check in at the exhibition booth nearby to find out more about the WTA Finals' history.

Around Ngee Ann City & Paragon.

COOL OFF WITH A DRINK

Until Nov 8

Take a break at Adrift by David Myers at Marina Bay Sands and order up a Golden Ace, the official cocktail of the WTA Finals. It's a refreshing mix of Jack Daniel's, calamansi juice, rosemary, Schweppes tonic and soda, and costs $23 - but present your WTA Finals ticket to enjoy 50 percent off.

Adrift by David Myers

Marina Bay Sands, Hotel Lobby Tower 2.

A WEEKEND OF TENNIS

Swinging by the Finals weekend to get in on the tennis action? Here are some of our recommendations for a thrilling 36 hours in Singapore!

30 October, Friday

- Sample the popular local dish of chilli crab at Singapore Seafood Republic in Sentosa
- Put your surfing skills to test at an action-packed afternoon at Wave House Sentosa
- Catch your favourite tennis stars at the first-ever Singapore Tennis Evening at Marina Bay Sands, and be serenaded by award-winning UK artiste Paloma Faith

31 October, Saturday

- Tuck into a breakfast of bak kut teh - a pork ribs broth concocted with local herbs and spices - at Ng Ah Sio Bak Kut Teh
- Take a stroll along Rangoon Road / Race Course Road to visit Leong San Temple and Sri Vadaputhira Kaliyammam Temple - two adjacent religious sites for a glimpse into our multi-cultural society
- Head to the Singapore Sports Hub for Session 11
- Hop over to the nearby Old Airport Road Food Centre for some hawker food - don't miss the fried oyster omelette, char kway teow and Hokkien mee
- Pop back to the Singapore Sports Hub to catch Session 12
- For dinner, sample traditional Peranakan cuisine at Candlenut before heading for a night cap at The Study, a hidden bar along Keong Saik Road

1 November, Sunday

- Start your day with authentic charcoal-fired laksa - rice vermicelli served in a rich and spicy curry coconut milk - at Sungei Road Laksa
- Travel to Haji Lane to check out charming hole-in-the-wall boutiques with unique finds at wallet-friendly prices
- Stroll along to Sultan Mosque, built in 1824 for Sultan Hussein Shah, the first sultan of Singapore
- Savour some delicious Nasi Padang - a banquet of meats, fish, vegetables and spicy sambal chilli sauce - at family restaurant Rumah Makan Minang
- Head back to the Singapore Sports Hub and soak in the atmosphere at the WTA Finals Fan Zone, before gearing up for the WTA Finals doubles final (3.30pm) and the singles final (6.30pm)
- Head for a late dinner and night cap at Mitzo, which serves reinvented Chinese-Cantonese classics till late

The prestigious BNP Paribas WTA Finals Singapore presented by SC Global is just one of the reasons to cheer while you're in Singapore. Held at the Singapore Sports Hub, this season-ending championship promises to be a real treat for visitors, not least because of all the festivities that are going on across the island concurrently.

Deepavali, the Hindu Festival of Lights, will be celebrated in November, but the celebrations start early – soak in the atmosphere along the streets of Little India which are festooned with colourful lights and bustling with street bazaars and cultural performances. Or head to Chinatown where old meets new, with traditional street food stalls and heritage establishments situated alongside hip hangouts and contemporary restaurants, all amid a rich cultural setting.

If you're planning an action-packed day out, you can choose to check out some of our attractions such as River Safari or Adventure Cove Waterpark™ at Resorts World™ Sentosa. Admire world-class masterpieces at the newly opened Singapore Pinacothèque de Paris, or explore the newly-minted UNESCO World Heritage Site Singapore Botanic Gardens, a lush tropical oasis located in the city centre but which feels a world away. There's also the tranquil Gardens by the Bay with its glass-domed conservatories and stunning Supertree Grove. Or go off the beaten track and seek out Singapore's most beloved neighbourhood hangouts such as Tiong Bahru, Kampong Glam or Katong. Either way, you'll get to discover and fall in love with the slew of exciting activities, from world-class art shows and gourmet food festivals to family-friendly entertainment.

While you're enjoying our destination's cosmopolitan offerings, why not get the wardrobe to match? Both luxury complex Marina Bay Sands® and famed shopping strip Orchard Road have refreshed their retail offerings. The choice is endless – take your pick of big-name exclusives, high-street fashion and local designer finds.

What's more, Singapore turns 50 this year – and you're invited to join the celebrations. Check out the exciting flight, hotel, dining and retail deals curated just for you, at www.yoursingapore.com/goldenjubilee
